

Denton Reads ... about the environment

Denton Reads is uniting the city by reading one book and promoting discussions of a common text.

The 2007 book is The Legacy of Luna: the Story of a Tree, a Woman, and the Struggle to Save the Redwoods by Julia Butterfly Hill.

Denton Reads is sponsoring events in April including Book Club discussions; Children's Environmental Festival (a hands-on Children's Festival for parents and children will be April 21 from 10 a.m. - noon at Quakertown Park); Environmental Films shown at UNT Media Library, the various branches of the Denton Public Library, the Movie Tavern (April 19 double feature of "An Inconvenient Truth" and "Who killed the Electric Car"); and the author Julia Butterfly Hill discussing her book at the UNT Auditorium, 7 p.m., Sunday, April 22.

There are activities for all ages, as well as age-appropriate books featuring this year's environment-centered theme: Dr. Seuss's The Lorax for young children, and Carl Hiaasen's HOOT for those ready for chapter-books. Each is available at the Denton Public Library as well as Barnes and Noble.

Housewarming for Rev. Craig Hunter

To get our new pastor started in his new home, we will have an all-church come-and-go event on Sunday, April 15 from 2 - 5 p.m.

Everyone is asked to bring an item to help stock his new home and prepare Craig for life as a homeowner. This is his first house so he can use all types of items.

This type of event for a new Presbyterian minister has traditionally been referred to as a "Pounding". This is because church members brought a pound of flour, a pound of sugar etc. We are extending this interpretation to include food, plants, household items etc.

Craig's new home is located at 3505 Hermalinda Drive. Maps/Directions will be available in the Narthex on April 15.
